It is now said that Esopus is an Indian word which means a brook. Must be a mistake, for we have failed to catch the faintest sound of babbling from that direction.

"Do animals reason?" asks the Washington Post. Looks like the Democratic one thought over its past and then re-routed its future. Surely there was reasoning there.

At Fall River, Mass., on Wednesday Miss Ida J. Murphy pelted druggist David R. Smith with spoilt eggs because he refused her demand that he should marry her. My, oh! Women are so eggsacting.

At Mineola, N. Y., the other day a women made her will and devised $30,000 to her husband, but provided that he shall receive only $5,000 if she leaves no child. That looks like tempting the old man to bribe the stork.

Says the Washington Post: "It is suspected that the administration is refraining from sailing into the beef trust from fear of being charged with spectacularism." The beef problem is one which Mr. Roosevelt refuses to believe is a dilemma with any horn worth while being seized till after the election is over.

In Washington the other night a prominent Virginia girl blew out the gas and was almost asphixiated. Her sweetheart went on to nurse her and the couple were married. But how about a girl that forgets herself and blows out the gas? Wouldn't her husband have to throw away the night key and stay at home nights to keep down the gas bill?

The strikes in the United States are becoming too serious not to require the attention of Congress at its next session. The trouble between the packers and their employes has resulted in more rioting and loss of life. There ought to be some way of arbitrating troubles satisfactorily to employe and employer in formidable disagreements like those in Colorado and like that now leading to bloodshed at Chicago.

Those Republicans who voted for the suffrage amendment in North Carolina can't well endorse the Roosevelt platform which seeks to cut down Southern representation on account of the very amendment which those Republican voters helped to adopt. The white Republican who honestly wanted to eliminate the ignorant negro vote will have to stultify himself if he votes for the negro plank in this election.

WEEKLY GUN CLUB SHOOT.

Mr. Buckner Led at Traps Yesterday. Monthly Prize—Visit to Southport.

The regular weekly trap shoot of the Wilmington Gun Club yesterday afternoon was one of the best yet held. The shooting was led by Mr. Walter Buckner in a score of 43 out of a possible 50, with Messrs. Gore and Empie close seconds. Mr. R. R. Bellamy won the $10 gold prize for the month, making, with his handicap, a total of 92½ per cent. A number of visitors were at the trap and were given the courtesies of the club. Mr. C. J. Cate, of the Wilson Club, made 36 out of 50 shots, and out of a possible 25, Mr. Sidney McDonald made 17; Mr. Durham, of Rocky Point, 16, and Mr. Peden, of Rocky Point, 10. The club score yesterday was as follows:

W. Buckner	43

Members of the Wilmington Club will go to Southport next Wednesday to return the recent visit of the club there to Wilmington. All who expect to go are requested to leave their names with Mr. R. F. Warren.

May Open the Streets.

An important matter for consideration at Monday night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be the opening of a number of streets in the northern section of the city. While all the thoroughfares in that portion of the town are shown to be open on the official plan of the city, they are, in fact, not open. The question has been referred to the City Attorney for incorporation and report. The Acts of 1854 prescribe the method of procedure and the Board of Aldermen will likely avail itself of the machinery of that law to define the boundaries. A Board of Assessors consisting of 20 freeholders is contemplated in the act. It is their duty to lay off the boundaries and assess the damages, if any, to property owners abutting upon such streets.

Newbern Excursion Yesterday.

An excursion party of nearly 700 people from Newbern and intermediate points reached here on a special train of nine coaches over the Atlantic Coast Line at 10:45 o'clock yesterday morning, returning at 7:30 o'clock last evening. The excursion was under the auspices of the Knights of Harmony, a strong secret order of Newbern and not a colored organization as was erroneously announced. The trip was a great success and the visitors appeared to enjoy themselves greatly.

Stole a Watermelon.

Herman Gerritt, the young white man accused of stealing jewelry from Mr. James Donnelly at Carolina Beach about ten days ago, was arraigned for preliminary trial before Justice Fowler yesterday but no probable cause was found. He was given trial, however, upon the charge of stealing a watermelon from Mr. N. T. Winner by whom he was employed, and was sent to jail in default of $50 bond.

DOWN FELL NEWBERN

East Carolina Champions Suffered Second Defeat at Hands of the C. F. A. Team.

THE BALL GAME YESTERDAY.

Score Three to One in Favor of Wilmington After Interesting Contest—Lake Waccamaw Comes for Conclusions To-day—Notes.

The Newbern baseball club, the proclaimed champions of East Carolina, went down in defeat before the strong Cape Fear Academy team of Wilmington in the presence of 250 spectators at Hilton Park yesterday afternoon. The score was three to one and the game was a fine exhibition of the national sport. The Newbernians arrived on the excursion yesterday morning and were reinforced on the grounds in the afternoon by a big contingent of most enthusiastic "rooters" on the bleachers. The Wilmington noise-makers were also there and between the two factions, interest was kept at fever heat. The visitors developed a wonder on the slab in the person of John Patterson, who may well be called "the boy wonder." He is only 17 years of age and let the locals down with a minimum of hits, pulling himself very cleverly out of a hole at several critical points. "Red" Wilson, on the slab for the locals, also did fine work, keeping his hits well scattered and his head with him at all time. Both pitchers received good support, though the four runs were made on errors. The Newbernians started the chalking with their lonesome run in the second inning and it was a chance run, too. Two men were down, but Wooten made the only double hit of the game and got third on an error. An infield hit sent him over the pan. Wilmington got her runs in a pile in the sixth inning. Calder received a pass and stole second. Moore hit in the diamond and went safe on error of first base, giving Calder third. Then followed a succession of errors, a wild throw, a passed ball and two runs for the locals were netted, leaving a man on third base. He was scored on an opportune infield hit by Wilson with two men out. But the tabulated score tells the story and here it is:

Summary—Struck out by Patterson, 10; by Wilson, 8. Two base hit, Wooten. Time 2 hours. Umpire Mr. Genaust; scorer Mr. Dawson. Attendance, 250.

The Newbern boys are a clever lot and Manager J. B. Dawson, who was along, has reason to be proud of them. They played in hard luck yesterday and deserved to win, but they didn't. The team returned on the excursion last evening.

To-day the Cape Fear Academy team has a game at Hilton with Lake Waccamaw. The visitors will arrive on the 1:45 train this afternoon and the game will be called at 4 o'clock. McKnight, a strong college pitcher, will go in the box for the locals and their line-up will be exactly the same except that McIntyre will be on first base. Council will pitch for the visitors and a tug of war may be expected.

INTERESTING LOT OF CURIOSITIES.

Handicraft of Mission Indians in Far Away Alaska—Pretty Display.

Mr. W. D. Huhn, of this city, yesterday received from his brother, the Rev. J. E. Huhn, an Episcopal missionary in far-away Alaska, an interesting and valuable collection of fancy articles made by the Indians of his mission at Rampard. In the collection are gloves, slippers, napkin rings and fobs. The collection is very interesting and has double interest for Wilmington folks because the articles are the handicraft of a people among whom a Wilmingtonian is accomplishing a great work. The collection will be on display at DeRosset's book store to-day.

Entertained at Martinsville.

Mr. Martin Rathjen, Jr., delightfully entertained about twenty of his young lady and gentlemen friends at the attractive country place of his father, Martinsville, five miles from Wilmington, Thursday night. The party left Wilmington in wagonettes and after a pleasant ride to the beautiful country home of the host, music, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed until an early hour in the morning when the merry makers returned to the city. An elegant supper was served during the evening and everybody voted Mr. Rathjen a prince of good fellows.

A dip in the ocean these hot afternoons is a pleasure beyond compare—car every half hour in the afternoon.

WILLIAM H. MAYO DEAD.

Popular Young Wilmington Man Died at Hospital Last Night, Following Operation for Appendicitis—Funeral.

The announcement of the death of Mr. William E. Mayo, which occurred last night a few minutes after 11 o'clock at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, in this city, will bring sorrow to very many friends and acquaintances in Wilmington, where he was well and most favorably known. For some time past Mr. Mayo had been a trusted engineer for the Atlantic Coast Line at Columbia, S. C., but about two weeks ago he came back to Wilmington on a very sad mission—to bury an only child. While here and bowed down with grief, the young man suffered a recurrent attack of appendicitis and went to the hospital for an operation by his family physician, which he had been deferring for some time. The operation was performed about ten days ago and for a while it was thought it would be a success. However, this week complications set in and it was known all day yesterday that the end was near. He passed away last night with his devoted wife and other relatives by his bedside.

Mr. Mayo was born and reared in Wilmington. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mayo, of this city, and was about 35 years of age. Until a few years ago he had made Wilmington his home. During the recent riot in 1898 he was shot in the breast by a negro while in the defence of his home and property on Harnett street. He was a young man of strong character and was popular with everybody. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Knights of Columbus, and was highly esteemed by his comrades in those organizations. A few years ago he married Miss Sallie Walton, of Suffolk, Va., and she survives him. There are also surviving his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mayo, and three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Furlong, Mrs. James H. Cowan and Mrs. Grimm, of Philadelphia, Pa.

The funeral will be conducted from the family residence on Harnett street Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock; thence to St. Thomas' Catholic church. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

THE CONFERENCE AT SOUTHPORT.

Every Charge in the District Represented. Interesting Discussions—Notes.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

SOUTHPORT, N. C., July 29.—It becomes more and more marked that the Conference now in session here is to be a great success from every point of view. Every preacher in the district is present except one and he is confined to his bed with fever. Every charge in the district is represented by from two to four laymen, and they are all here, not for pleasure, but to consider and discuss questions of vital importance to the church. Among the most interesting questions thus far considered may be mentioned: "The Proper Care of the House of God" and what a good comfortable church means to the material and spiritual prosperity of a community. Rev. J. J. Porter and Dr. E. A. Yates gave some very interesting reminiscences of work done in transforming old, rickety, weather beaten houses into beautiful and comfortable church houses.

On Thursday evening Rev. Alpheus McCullen preached a strong and forceful sermon, his subject being "The Philosophy of Missions." He was heard by a large and appreciative congregation.

A most interesting feature of this morning's session was the report of the Committee on Missions. Two years ago only two of the twenty charges of Conference paid the Foreign and Domestic Mission Assessment in full. This year eight charges have already paid in full, three others have the full amounts subscribed and, unless some unforseen calamity happens every charge in the district will this year pay the full assessment. This progress has not been accomplished without great labor, especially on the part of Presiding Elder John and District Missionary Secretary Barnes.

The importance of looking well after the neglected parts of our own district was presented by Rev. J. M. Marlow, and a collection taken to help build a church in a neglected community. At 11 A. M. Dr. Yates preached a strong sermon.

ASKS HEAVY DAMAGES

Notice of Suit Against Consolidated Company Filed in Court Yesterday.

PLAINTIFF MELVIN HORNE.

Lost His Hand by Contact With Live Wire—Accident Alleged to Have Resulted from Negligence of the Company—Other Notes.

Through his attorneys, Woodus Kellum and Heibert McClammy, Esqs., notice was given yesterday by Melvin Horne of a suit which he will bring against the Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Co., for recovery of damages sustained through the alleged negligence of the company some time ago when Mr. Horne was nearly burned to death by contact with a live wire near Front and Dock streets. The complaint in the suit has not yet been filed but it is understood that not less than $35,000 will be asked. The case will be docketed at the next term in September and will probably be tried this Fall or Winter.

The circumstances of young Mr. Horne's accident are very well remembered. For some time he was employed as a motorman and conductor on the city street car system of the company and last Summer was given a position as motorman on the suburban line to the beach. He was regarded as one of the most efficient and most careful men in the employ of the company, but one night upon the last trip of the car to the city, he ran over and killed Joe Meier, near Greenville, at a country road crossing. No one attached the least blame to the young motorman for the accident, but when he came to the city he is said to have vowed that he would never run another car, and from that day to this he has kept the promise to himself. When he left the car line, Mr. Horne was given the position of lamp trimmer for the company in Wilmington, and he had been filling that position for several months, when one morning, in some way, he came in contact with a live wire and was burned fearfully. He was in the hospital for several months and it was finally found necessary to amputate one of the young man's hands. He survived the operation and for the past few months had been at work at the sub-station at Wrightsville. He had some misunderstanding about the hours he was to work there and at length gave up his job. The suit followed. It is said that a number of lawyers of great ability will be retained on both sides and the trial promises to be one of the most interesting held in Wilmington in recent years.

LYCEUM COURSE OF ATTRACTIONS.

Canvass for Subscribers Begins Monday. Assurance from the Management.

There is no room for doubt that the Lyceum Course which will be given in Wilmington the coming season will be one of the best ever seen in the South and the very best ever presented in this city. This is attested by the following letter just received:

Messrs. Cowan Bros., Wilmington:

GENTLEMEN:—The course of attractions which you have contracted for is composed of the leading platform attractions of America and you need feel no hesitancy in recommending this course to your patrons. It is very seldom that a Lyceum course is presented composed of such strong and such popular numbers. Wishing you much success, we are,

Yours very truly,
THE RICE BUREAU.

This speaks volumes for the high merit of the course, as the Rice Bureau is one of the most substantial and prominent Lyceum booking representatives in the country and has at its head the distinguished ex Gov. Bob Taylor. The course will consist as heretofore of eight entertainments, and also, as heretofore, the price of a season book will be only $2, with 10 cents additional to be paid for every reserved seat. This will make the price of each number 35 cents, when the admission alone to a person not possessing a season book will be $1 to each entertainment, and will probably exceed that figure to the inaugural number, which will be something exceptional for a Lyceum course and something that the music-loving public will greatly appreciate. It will be the official court orchestra of Hungary, which will give a limited number of concerts in this country in the Fall. Other just as popular numbers will make up the rest of the course.

A canvass for subscribers for the course will commence Monday and the subscription should be large.

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

Cases in the police court yesterday were not important. William Lew, the negro who became famous about a year ago because certain attorneys chanced to hit upon a case in which he was defendant to decide a question before the Supreme Court, was charged with drunkenness and disorder. He was fined $10 and costs and will go to the roads in default. Charles Fisher, an Albino, was fined $5 and costs for drunkenness and disorder, and Virgil Spicer, charged with being drunk and down, was let off with the costs in consideration of the fact that he had never been in court before and was found in a back lot. The cases of the two negroes charged with stealing logs from the Cape Fear Lumber Co., were continued until next Tuesday at the request of Messrs. Woodus Kellum and Brooke G. Empie, counsel for defendants.

A JUST COMPLAINT.

And One That Will be Looked After by the Railroad People.

This week's issue of the Whiteville News has the following:

"Complaints have been made by the people who were on the Odd Fellows' excursion to Wrightsville Beach last week about the manner in which they were treated by some of the dudes of Wilmington while seated in the car awaiting their departure for home. They passed through the cars tapping the ladies on the cheek with sea weed and also struck those sitting near the windows with the grass from outside of the cars. This was continued until Rev. Mr. Winecoff and others of the committee called on them to desist or they would have to use force to compel them to do so. That's the kind of a manful spirit should be shown in every minister; and the permission of the insult to the ladies in the A. C. L. yards is a reflection on the railroad company for not having the proper police protection for their patrons."

PARKER AND PROSPERITY.

The Hon. A. H. Boyden, mayor of Salisbury, has just returned from New York and he brings good news of the prospects for the election of Judge Parker as the next President of the United States. Col. Boyden is one of the best known men in North Carolina and has for many years been a prominent politician. We place a great deal of confidence in what he says and we are going to pin our faith to what he told the Washington Post on Wednesday. While en route from New York he was a guest of the Metropolitan Hotel, and here is how the Post chronicles him in its "People Met in Hotel Lobbies" column:

Salisbury will soon begin the installation of a modern, up-to-date street system, and Mayor Boyden has been North making preliminary arrangements. While there he came in contact with a number of prominent business men, equally prominent in Republican politics, and from the information he received from them he is confident that Parker and Davis will be elected.

"Well-known Republicans whom I met in a business way," said he, "assured me that the Republican managers have abandoned the hope of carrying New York State, and that the State can be counted upon to round up a big Democratic majority. I was told that among the conservative business men Parker is regarded with much more favor than Roosevelt, and that as a matter of fact the fight is to be made on Roosevelt, rather than on the party.

"I also learned," said Mr. Boyden, "from the men whom I met that Connecticut may be looked upon to cast a Democratic vote, but that New Jersey will probably go Republican. The men talked to are high in the councils of their party, and I was surprised and encouraged at what they told me. I feel confident that a Democratic administration is about to be elected.

"Salisbury is about to spend $100,000 on laying artificial streets, and it was to purchase material that I went to New York. The city is prosperous, and in time will become one the most important commercial and manufacturing centers of the State. In fact, the entire South is prosperous, and is growing day by day more wealthy. Some ten or fifteen years ago the farmers would drive into town to make their purchases of supplies and would ask how much time to pay in would be given. They were not in good circumstances, but now when the farmers drive into town to buy buggies or bacon or thrashing machines they no longer ask how much time they will be granted, but want to know how much of a discount will be allowed for payment in cash. That shows the commercial improvement which the South has made during the past fifteen years. It is the richest section of the country to-day. Her people are growing opulent."

We get two good things out of this interview with Col. Boyden. He stiffens up our backbone about the Presidential outlook, and gives us gratifying information about one of the growing cities of North Carolina. Salisbury is situated in one of the finest regions of North Carolina and Col. Boyden's picture of the prosperity of that section is but a confirmation of the conditions everywhere in the Old North State. However, we came very nearly forgetting the Presidential contest in contemplating the progressiveness and prosperity of Salisbury, but we can't help saying that if people wish a complete consummation of happiness after Parker becomes President they should settle somewhere in North Corolina.

Col. Boyden, in his talk with the Post, suggests to us that Parker and Prosperity is what North Carolina is standing for now.

IT WILL TAKE 46 YEARS TO CONSTRUCT THE CANAL.

We regret to have to make a statement which will greatly disappoint many middle-aged persons throughout the United States. We do so, however, under authority of some Dr. Stevenson, of Norway Lake, Me., who is introduced to us by the Providence Journal.

Dr. Stevenson makes the disappointing declaration that it is his opinion that the work of excavation alone of the Panama canal cannot be completed before 1950. This is 46 years hence, so that not many people who are now middle aged will be here to read the account of the passage of the first ship through the isthmian waterway which Uncle Sam is to construct from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The doctor bases his declaration on the reason that the canal construction will be "the most stupendous thing in the way of earth moving ever contemplated by engineers."

The engineers of the United States government had estimated that the canal could be excavated in seven years, but Dr. Stevenson goes extensively into figures to prove that it will require nearly fifty years to complete the job. We do not know whether he is an expert or not but if he will split the difference with the government engineers he will have it down about right.

So far as we are concerned we are going to do our best to stay here to see whether or not Dr. Stevenson knows what he is talking about

A Colorado man accounted for $10,000 to his wife and told her that was all he had. She believed that he was boarding money and dug down in the cellar, with the result that she unearthed $25,000 that had been hid in a jug and a tin box. The old man fell dead when his money had been discovered and sure it's a lucky woman than can play a winning and losing game like that.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— It is now claimed that both parties are having difficulty in securing campaign funds. It would be a real novelty to have an election decided on its merits just once.—Washington Post.

—— If the Vladivostok squadron was dispatched eastward with a view of meddling in the trade between the United States and Japan it was sent on a fool's errand. At a critical conjuncture like the present, when Russia needs all the friends she can get, it would be an act of folly to commit to a naval commander delicate functions the discharge of which without offending the susceptibilities of neutrals is almost impossible.—New York Sun.

—— New York World: Great Britain herself has never hesitated to exercise the fullest powers of a belligerent in stopping and searching neutral ships suspected of carrying contraband of war and seizing them when the suspicion seemed to be confirmed. There is hardly an act of this kind that another power could commit for which a score of British precedents could not be found.

AN EXCUSE FOR RUNNING.

The writers for the funny papers have written jokes galore about the messenger boy, likening his speed unto the gait of the turtle, but it remained for one of the subjects of these jokes to coin an unconscious jest far better than the majority of the printed witticisms.

The incident occurred at Broad and Chestnut streets, and the actors were two messenger boys. One of the youngsters was running down Broad street at a speed which was hardly typical of the messenger boy. Another boy had just left the Western Telegraph office at the corner of Chestnut street and was strolling slowly up Broad, his eyes glued on the latest dime novel of "The Terrible Terror's Tumultuous Times." When the slow going boy spotted the swift speeding messenger his eyes stood out with amazement, and in tones of anxious inquiry he cried out:

"Hully gee, Bill! What's de matter? Ain't yer workin'?"—Philadelphia Press.

Snow Twenty Yards Deep.

Europe did not escape the severity of the past winter. One would have to go to the northwest to find conditions equaling those of the White lake region of Alsace. The Berlin correspondent of the Newcastle Chronicle states that there has been an almost ceaseless fall of snow since the beginning of February. The ice on the lake is said to be nineteen inches thick, but upon this the snow, hurled down by the wind from the Hautes Chaumes above, lies to the almost incredible depth of twenty yards. The hotel on the lake shore, owing to its peculiar position, can only be approached by a tunnel through the snow thirty yards in length. Terrible floods are anticipated should a rapid thaw set in.

He Knew the Scriptures.

At a recent gathering of the diplomatic corps in Washington, when the Russian and French ambassadors and the Chinese and Japanese ministers were present, some exceedingly discreet allusions were made to the Russo-Japanese unpleasantness. Count Cassini may have thought he had heard a compliment to Japanese alacrity, for he remarked pointedly to M. Jusserand and in the hearing of the representatives of Japan and China, "Yes, but the good book says, 'The race is not to the swift.'" Quick as a flash Sir Chentung finished the Scripture of Ecclesiastes in the ear of his Japanese colleague, "'Nor the battle to the strong.'"

Embarrassing to the Guest.

A tourist in the Welsh mountains who had been caught in a storm and who after much difficulty had succeeded in making his way to a solitary cottage congratulated himself on his good fortune when he was asked to stay for the night. After donning a suit of his host's clothes, so that his own might be dried, he proceeded downstairs and on his way met the mistress with a big Bible in her hand. In the fading light she mistook the stranger for her husband and gave him a thump on the head with it, remarking, "That's for asking the man to stay all night."

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, July 29.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of three points on near and of six to nine points on later options in response to much firmer cables than expected and continued reports from some sections of the belt claiming deterioration. Immediately following the call prices continued to show firmness, with the new crop months ruling about six to eleven points higher, while the old crop months were practically neglected. It was a notice day for August contracts, but it was said that only a few tenders were out and these were evidently promptly stopped for the near positions gradually firmed up and at one time were about twelve to fifteen points higher, with July selling at 10.33 and August at 10.39. The advances on the late positions attracted considerable realizing by recent buyers and there also seemed to be a little selling for short account on the ground that the government report due next Wednesday would make an extremely bearish showing. These offerings were about offset by continued support from lower Wall street brokers, but no aggressive effort was made to force prices higher, and later in the day a declining tendency developed which reduced the gains until at the close the market was net unchanged to nine points higher. The tone of the market was steady. Sales were estimated at 100,000 bales.

Very heavy exports were reported, chefly from New Orleans, leading the material reductions in the port receipts. Private advices report that Monigomery, Ala., has received a new bale which is earlier than last year. Houston, it was said, had 39 new bales and Galveston reported three. Liverpool will be closed from over Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For fifteen years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." It's just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

— The first load of new tobacco was sold on the Durham market July 28th. This is the earliest in all the history of the tobacco business there.

— Durham Herald: The farmers are raising good crops with a prospect of good prices and this is bound to make times better, no matter which way the political cat jumps.

— The Siler City Grit has made its appearance. The editors are W. E. Lawson and H. O. Vestal, who announce that the paper is to be non-political, simply a family newspaper.

— On Thursday there was a killing in Cleveland county near the three county corner. Brice Hunt killed Joe Mooney, a young man about 20 years old. Both parties are white — Raleigh Times: We have always believed in an independent press. e now believe in it more than eve since all of the independent papers in the country are declaring for Judge Parker for President.

— Raleigh Post: The Republican challenge to the Democratic party has made the Watts law an issue; but there are other issues that will be interesting enough to the Republicans when their attention is called to them.

— Raleigh News and Observer: Here's North Carolina going ahead again. It is announced that there is a "correspondence school of racing" at Morganton. Perhaps Republican nominee Harris might take a few lessons, as Democratic nominee Glenn is a past master in political racing.

—Tuesday night after church in the negro district at Shelby there was a shooting scrape. Bob Tomlinson, of Kings Mountain, had been going with Florence Roberts. After church Tomlinson started home with her and Gus Roberts, her brother, told him not to go; if he did so he wou'd rock him. Tomlinson went on with her and when they got home Roberts threw some rocks at him and then went in the house and got a double-barreled shotgun and snapped it at another negro standing in the yard. Then he drew the gun on Tomlinson, emptying the entire load in his foot, making it necessary to amputate it near the ankle Wednesday morning. Roberts is now in jail.

— The North Carolina Press Association closed its session at Morehead City on Thursday. The next meeting will be held in Asheville, the time to be fixed by the executive committee. The election of officers for the ensuing year took place with the following result: H. B. Varner, president; M. L. Shipman, first vice president; R. M. Phillips, second vice president; J. C. Caddell, third vice president; J. B. Sherrill, secretary and treasurer. The convention adjourned Thursday afternoon, but nearly all the editors remained to hear an address by Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and attend a banquet at the Atlantic Hotel on Thursday night. Gen. Lee spoke to a large assemblage of newspaper men and other guests in the ball room at 8:30 o'clock.

— On Thursday morning at Durham four small Durham boys went out into the country and three of the number were shot by an old man named Marion Norwood because they had been in his watermelon field. None of the boys was seriously hurt, the shot used being very fine bird shot and the distance between the man and the boys considerable. Marion Norwood, who did the shooting, is an aged Confederate cavalry veteran. It seems that the four boys took two small guns and went out in the woods on a hunt. When they reached old man Norwood's place one of the boys went into his watermelon patch and took a cantaloupe. They then left the field and were going across an old field nearby when Norwood saw them. He at once opened fire, firing four shots and wounding three of the boys.

—There was a distinct sensation at Greensboro on Thursday when it became known that ex-Mayor Z. V. Taylor, a member of the law firm of Scales, Taylor & Scales had brought suit for slander aggainst Mr. V. C. McAdoo, an attorney there, and a large real estate owner and dealer, and step-son to Mr. R. R. King, one of the most prominent lawyers in the State. Mr. McAdoo was largely interested, financially, in the Telephone Exchange, which was acquired recently by the Southern Bell Telephone Company. The summons in the suit brought by Taylor only has been served, but it is understood that the graveamen of the action is the alleged statement of McAdoo that the plaintiff while mayor acted corruptly in aiding the American Telephone Company in securing a charter for a system in Greensboro, whereby the Bell Company at a recent date was able to "sandbag" the Greensboro Telephone Company into selling out at a ruinous sacrifice. Mr. Taylor has employed Messrs. Brooks & Thompson and Judge W. P. Bynum to prosecute the suit against McAdoo.

— The Washington correspondent of the Raleigh Post writes: The North Carolina regiment, which is to take part in the joint maneuvers on the historic battlefield of Manassas in September, will be located at Camp No. 2, which is about one mile west of Thoroughfare, Va. The commanding officer of Camp No. 2 who will have direct supervision of the Tar Heel troops is Gen. Franklin J. Bell, U. S. A. The official roster of the troops that will take part in the maneuvers accredits North Carolina with 55 officers, 580 men and 16 horses. The regiment from the State will be located between the Massachusetts infantry and the soldiers from West Virginia, State troops. They are supposed to arrive at the camp on September 3rd and 4th and to leave on the 11th and 12th of that month.

— Dr. A. C. Dixon, a former pastor of Immanuel Baptist Tabernacle at North Avenue and St. Paul street, now the Seventh Baptist church, and at present pastor of the Ruggles Street Baptist church, Boston, has been invited to become the successor of Rev. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan as head of the work at Northfield, Mass., founded by the late Dwight L. Moody, according to advices from Boston. Dr. Dixon who is a brother of Thomas Dixon, Jr., the author, was pastor of Immanuel Tabernacle more than ten years ago. He is a native of North Carolina.—Baltimore Sun.

The Morning Star

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 30.

CASE GIVEN TO THE JURY.

Trial of Wm. E. Breese, Charged With Embezzlement of $114,000 from First National Bank of Asheville.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 29.—The fate of William E. Breese, charged with the fraudulent withdrawal of about $114,000 from the First National Bank of Asheville, while president of that institution, has been committed to the jury after a trial lasting seventeen days. This is the fourth time the case has been heard in the United States District Court.

To-day's proceedings was taken up with the conclusion of Chas. A. Moore's argument for the defence, the speech of U. S. District Attorney Holton and the charge of Judge Keller. Judge Moore contended that in none of the defendant's actions was there any intent to defraud. In the closing argument for the government, District Attorney Holton maintained that the conditions in Asheville had nothing to do with the bank's failure.

Judge Keller began his charge to the jury at 3:15 and consumed an hour and a quarter in explaining the law in the case. The jury at 4:30 P. M., after being out two hours, returned and had the charge relating to the difference between embezzlement and misappropriation of funds repeated.

Breese Found Guilty.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 30.—After being out for about eight hours, the jury in the case of William E. Breese, late president of the First National Bank of Asheville, found him guilty of the abstraction and misappropriation of the funds and Judge Keller sentenced him to seven years in prison. Defendant's attorneys filed bill of exception and gave notice of appeal to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond. The verdict was returned at 12:25 this morning.

VERY MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

Well Dressed Young Man Found Severely Wounded in Central Park, New York. A Woman in the Case.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The police are investigating a mysterious shooting affair, the victim of which was a well dressed young man who was found severely wounded in Central Park to-day. The young man does not give his name and to-night lies in a New York hospital in a precarious condition.

When picked up in the park he gave the name of Frederick Courtney, at the same time saying it was fictitious. Soon afterward he dispatched a note to Mrs. E. W. Dignon, a young widow, registered at the Martha Washington Hotel, from Philadelphia. In this note he told the young woman that he was shot this morning and asked her to tell his employer that he had been called away. He also told her to keep his name secret. Soon afterward a lawyer representing Mrs. Dignon called at the hospital. He told the newspaper men there that the young man is of good standing, but refused to give his name. He said that it was unfortunate that his client's name should be connected with the affair. "It may be that he had an engagement to call upon her and for that reason it occurred to him to write her," he said in explanation. "The young man is of the highest character," said the lawyer.

The only clue to the man's identity is furnished by the name "Dana" on his underclothing and a gold watch bearing the initials "S. L. D."

REPORTED CAPTURE OF PORT ARTHUR.

Persistent Rumors That the Fortress Has Fallen Into Hands of Japanese.

STORY TOLD BY REFUGEES.

Heavy Fighting for Three Days—General Assault by the Japanese to Begin Thursday—Japanese Report of Losses at Tatchekiao.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SHANGHAI, July 29.—A telegram received here from Wei Hai Wei confirms other telegrams received here to-day from Che Foo, to the effect that Port Arthur has been captured. The Wei Hai Wei telegram says also that the British fleet, which has been cruising, will return there to-morrow.

At Wei Hai Wei there is a British wireless telegraph station and the British warships are equipped with this means of communication. It is possible that Wei Hai Wei has been in wireless communication with the fleet and that the information of the fall of Port Arthur was received in this manner.

LONDON, July 29, 8:40 P. M.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Wei Hai Wei, dated to-day says:

"It is supposed here that Port Arthur has been captured, as the British fleet is returning here to-morrow."

Presumably this reports is from the same source as the dispatch from Shanghai report a Wei Hai Wei rumor that Port Arthur has fallen. The only basis for the report known here is that when Russia no longer occupies Port Arthur the British, by the treaty, will evacuate Wei Hai Wei and the inference is that the British fleet is returning to Wei Hai Wei to remove the stores, etc., from that place.

Not much credence is attached for the moment to the Wei Hai Wei report though rumors are flooding the continent.

LONDON, July 29, 12 M.—Up to this time the Japanese legation has received no news indicating the fall of Port Arthur.

Heavy Fighting.

CHE FOO, July 29, 10 P. M.—A junk containing thirty refugees from Port Arthur, who are all foreigners of the better class, arrived here to-night, having left Port Arthur on Thursday.

The refugees report that exceedingly heavy fighting by land and sea to the east and northeast of Port Arthur occurred on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week and they express that a general assault was begun on Thursday. They say that this bombardment was the heaviest experienced since the beginning of the siege and that the Russian forces made very little reply to the Japanese firing.

Field Marshal Marquis Oyama, accompanied by his staff, left Port Dalney on Tuesday. He is conducting the Japanese operations in person.

The fresh meat supply in Port Arthur is exhausted. Only the troops are getting salt meat. Non-combatants are subsisting mainly on oatmeal and rice.

The Losses at Tatchekiao.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The Japanese minister has received the following cablegram from the foreign office at Tokio, dated to-day:

"General Oku reports that according to the statements of a Russian official, captured during the recent battle, General Kuropatkin was present on the battlefield and that Generals Sakaloff and Kondranovitch were wounded. Also, that the Russian casualties were about 2,000. The Japanese casualties were about 1,000, and General Oku reports that investigations are being made regarding the number of prisoners taken and the quantity of munitions of war, etc., captured."

Korea at Yokohama.

TOKIO, July 29.—The steamship Korea arrived at Yokohama at 7 o'clock this morning. She saw no Russian warships and was not aware of danger. The Korea did not go to Midway island because she was late and trying to make up lost time. The weather was thick yesterday and this probably accounts for her escape. Captain Seabury was astonished when the boarding launches informed him yesterday of the risk he had been running.

VLADIVOSTOK, July 29.—It is definitely established that Viceroy Alexieff is coming here, and quarters for him and a suite of twenty have been prepared.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 29.—It is announced that the Baltic Sea squadron's departure for the Far East will not occur for at least two weeks.

NEW CHWANG, July 29.—Heavy firing was heard outside of New Chwang until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

LONDON, July 30.—No further news regarding the reported fall of Port Arthur, or war news of any kind, has reached the London morning newspapers.

German Steamer Arabia.

VLADIVOSTOK, July 29.—The German steamer Arabia, under charter of an American company, which was captured by the Russian cruiser Grombol July 22, a hundred miles north of Yokohama, has arrived here in charge of a prize crew.

The Arabia left Portland, Oregon, July 2nd, with a cargo of flour and railroad material. The greater portion of the flour is addressed to Hong Kong and is not liable to seizure, but 466 tons of flour and 542 tons of railway material are addressed to Yokohama, Kobe and Nagasaki, and consequently are contraband.

As the contraband of war aboard the Arabia forms less than half her cargo, the vessel herself is not liable to seizure. After the contraband has been discharged, the ship will be released. The final disposition rests with the prize court.

THE ASSASSINATION OF THE RUSSIAN MINISTER.

The Assassin Will Recover from His Injuries—His Identity Still Uncertain. The Conspiracy Widespread.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 29.—The name of the assassin of Minister Von Plehve is given by the "Bourse Gazette" as Porozeff, but this is not confirmed by the police. The correspondent of "Tapuj" learned that while the identity and nationality of the assassin and his accomplice are still not definitely known, the police are making progress in unravelling the skein. They are amazed to find how far-reaching was the conspiracy. There is nothing yet, however, to prove its connection with that of Gerschunin.

The capture of the accomplice of the murderer was effected under circumstances showing that the conspirators pursued the very plan of the assassination of Alexander II. The accomplices then were posted at several street corners, in order that if one man failed another might succeed. The same plan was adopted yesterday. The accomplice who is under arrest stood near the Baltic depot ready to throw a second bomb. The former could watch the course of events and when he heard the explosion he was satisfied that the murder had been accomplished and hastily went down the canal side, hired a boat for eighty kopecks per hour and directed the boatman to take him for a row toward the sea, away from the scene of the tragedy. The boatman noticed soon after they started that his passenger took a card-board box out of his pocket and dropped it quickly overboard. The boatman said nothing, but when the passenger landed he called a policeman and gave the man in charge. The prisoner, who was respectably dressed, spoke Russian with a foreign accent. He refused to give his name.

The assassin walked up and down the street, at the corner whence he threw the bomb, at least a quarter of an hour, awaiting von Plehve's carriage. He did not arouse the slightest suspicion on the part of several policemen who were almost alongside of him, because he wore an official cap. The murderer must have known von Plehve's carriage well, as he paid no attention to the passage of several other ministers who had preceded von Plehve in going to Peterhoff. As soon as the victim's carriage appeared, the assassin ran forward with the evident intention of throwing the bomb through the window. Von Plehve saw him and felt his coming doom before the death-dealing charge burst. Had the cyclist detective accompanying the minister ridden straight, he might have knocked down the murderer and saved his life at the cost of his own, but the cyclist instead swerved, enabling the assassin to launch the infernal machine after retarding the carriage.

The recovery of Lego, alias Porozeff, is practically certain. He is conscious although suffering acute pain in consequence of the operation in extracting the splinters from his abdomen, face and arms. Though taciturn, he no longer refuses to talk. He speaks Russian fluently, but with a foreign accent, and declares he had no accomplices. He admits it was a carefully planned crime, says he was animated by humanitarian motives and does not express the slightest regret.

The assassin was examined by an investigating magistrate to-day and refused to make any statement.

The post mortem examination of the remains of von Plehve shows that his death was instantaneous. The entire lower part of his face was destroyed and the upper part was shockingly furrowed by bomb splinters. The ears were torn off, there was a gaping wound in his breast, his left shoulder was mangled, his left arm was broken off between the wrist and the elbow, and his legs were broken.

The murderer is still in the hospital. He is a handsome man of about 25 years, with blonde regular features.

Plot Against the Emperor.

It was developed that the police for some time past have been aware that a plot was maturing against the Emperor and notified one of the ministers that a party of fifteen Anarchists had arrived in St. Petersburg. Several arrests were actually made some days before the assassination of the minister of the interior, and the police had the assassin's house masked and a trap set for his arrest on the night of July 14, but he did not return home.

The bomb which the accomplice dropped in the canal has been recovered by the police. It is foreign made though.

RUSSIA FILES A PROTEST

Against British Shipments of Contraband to Japan—Will Not Hasten Settlement of Dardanelles Question.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 29.—Russia has filed a formal protest at the foreign office against British steamships of contraband to Japan. The Associated Press learns that the Russian government, since the beginning of the war, has carefully watched the manufacture of goods intended for the use of the Japanese government, and as soon as it was established that such goods were about to be shipped to a hostile destination the facts were officially communicated to the British government, with the request that measures be taken to put a stop to it. It is further asserted that in many cases the government has not taken action, and it understood that when the war ends Russia proposes to present a bill for damages to the British government which will offset the indemnities claimed for the seizure of British steamers.

It is also learned by the Associated Press that Russia does not intend to hasten the settlement of the question of the right of vessels of the volunteer fleet to pass the Dardanelles, since if negotiations on the subject were conducted at the time, as desired by Great Britian, Russia might be forced by the existing situation to grant concessions she would afterwards regret.

Will Indemnify Germany.

BERLIN, July 29.—The foreign office to-day informed the Associated Press that Russia has agreed to fully indemnify German shippers and their consignees for any losses sustained by the seizures of German ships and the detention of the Prinz Heinrich's mail. An inquiry is now in progress to determine what claims shall be presented. Russia also agrees to restore and forward the contents of the two seized mail packages.

Captain Van Schaick and Federal Steamboat Inspector Fleming and former Inspector Lundberg were indicted yesterday by the Federal grand jury in connection with the disaster to the General Slocum on June 15 last, when nearly one thousand lives were lost.

The fifth day of the cotton mill strike at Fall River passed as quietly as have the preceding days. Despite frequent rumors to the contrary, a settlement of the controversy appears distant.

NO IMPROVEMENT IN STRIKE SITUATION.

Packers Say They Are in Position to Ignore Labor Unions and Propose to Do It.

RIOTS ARE MORE FREQUENT.

Strike of Members of the Butchers' Union Employed by the Trust in New York Ordered—Arrest of the Chief of the Teamsters Union.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Unable to arrange a conference with representatives of the New York packers, Michael J. Donnelly, president of the amalgamated meat cutters and butchers workmen of America, has ordered a strike of all the members of the organization employed in New York by Schwarzchild & Sulzberger and the United Dressed Beef Company. The order, which was telegraphed to New York to night, does not go into effect until Sunday, as the men in the Eastern packing plants do not report for work on Saturday.

That the possibilities of a settlement by the opposing interests in Chicago are as remote as ever was plainly demonstrated to-day when H. C. Wallace, of Des Moines, Iowa, and A. L. Ames, of Buckingham, Iowa, called on the different packers with a proposition from the strike leaders, offering to concede the most important point in the controversy if the employers would agree to renew peace negotiations. Mr. Wallace and Mr. Ames were told by the packers that there was no possible chance for any further conciliatory move, and that the packers were in a position where they could ignore the labor unions and they proposed to do so.

Teamsters' President Arrested.

President George F. Golden, of the Teamsters' Union, turned strike picket to-day, defied Police Inspector Nicholas Hunt and met a Waterloo. The inspector, with his club whirling in the air, ran up a flight of stairs leading to Golden's office near the stock yards and seizing the labor leader by the arm marched Golden to the street. The teamsters' president was put in charge of a sergeant and sent to the stock yards police station a prisoner. Thus, for the first time, a chief of the striking thousands was taken into custody.

Golden discovered a wagon owned by Terry & Co. being driven past his office. Putting his head out of the window he called to the teamster: "Where are you going?"

"Anywhere I please so long as I attend to my own business," was the reply, whereupon Golden ordered the driver to turn back.

The inspector heard the command and reassured the teamster, telling him to go on about his business, Golden paying his compliments to the inspector. The inspector, shaking his club at the strike leader, declared there would be an immediate arrest if Golden did not "shut up." He did not "shut up," so the inspector shut him up, constructively at least, at the station.

The arrest caused intense excitement and within two minutes several thousand had gathered to watch the proceedings.

"This is an outrage," declared Golden. "I have been guilty of no offence against the law, yet I am taken up like a common criminal. I shall see whether a high and mighty inspector of police is more high and mighty than the rights of a citizen.

At the time of Golden's arrest the police also took into custody G. T. Busse, who was in the teamsters, headquarters. He was charged with interfering with an officer. A patrol wagon was called from the nearest police station whither the two prisoners were taken. Golden had two bondsmen at the station when he arrived there, but the captain in charge, acting under orders from the inspector, refused to liberate Golden or Busse on bail. Both prisoners were sent to cells vehemently protesting against what they declared was an outrage.

Golden was in a cell nearly two hours before Inspector Hunt relented. The prisoner was released on bond of $300, signed by Nicholas Gler, president of the butchers' union.

Golden was liberated only on condition that he remain away from the labor union headquarters until after his hearing to-morrow morning. Busse was likewise freed on $300 bond signed by Gler.

Strike Leaders Incensed.

The action of the police regarding Golden very greatly incensed the strike leaders. International President Cornelius P. Sheen, of the brotherhood of teamsters, was outspoken in his denunciation. "Colorado methods seem to prevail," said he. Other leaders coincided with this view and hot talk prevailed about the strikers' headquarters.

Adding to the strained situation when Golden was finally released by Inspector Hunt, the police official took occasion to issue a verbal manifesto that the police will no longer permit strike leaders to issue or disseminate orders to the members of the unions, save in private halls.

"You call out who you please, but you'll do it in your own hall or land in the lock-up," shouted the inspector, I'll have no nonsense. You fellows won't give orders on the streets to anyone, mind you, whether it is your own men or not. You won't holler orders from windows, either. That's final."

This utterance, made in the open air, in the presence of scores, was seized upon by the labor leaders as an instance of usurpation of power which they contended is possessed only by the court, and, in fact, as equivalent to a declaration of martial law.

Regarding the manifesto as a parallel to the attitude taken by the authorities in Colorado, the strikers were thrown into an intensely ugly mood. On all sides it was conceded that the incident will have a decided influence upon the future conduct of the strike.

FORT WORTH, TEX., July 29.—To-day the grand jury indicted five strikers, one for assault to murder and four for unlawful assembling. The indictments grew out of an assault committed on one Cunningham, a porter for Armour & Company, by a squad of pickets.

More business was done to-day by the packers than at any time since the strike began. With two days additions to the new employes, obtained from outside sources, the statement was made to-night by one of the packers that fully 13,000 men are now at work in the seven plants, in place of the union men who are on strike. This is nearly half as many men as went on strike.

From a statement made by President Donnelly to night it would appear that the men are becoming anxious to get back to work. "We shall be glad to confer with representatives of the packers at any time," said Mr. Donnelly. "While I cannot say that our position is in any way changed, we are not anxious to keep up a running fight and shall be glad if a settlement is effected."

Rioting Frequent.

Following the arrest of Geo. Golden, chief of the packing teamsters' union, for picketing, riots became more frequent in the vicinity of the stock yards this afternoon. In one instance a mob captured a meat loaded wagon from the stock yards, upset the wagon and threw the meat into the street.

The most serious riot of the day occurred in South Chicago, where five men were arrested for trying to prevent the delivery of meat. Although the strikers and their friends became very boisterous when it became known that Golden had been arrested and made all sorts of threats, no one was seriously injured in any of the many disturbances that occurred. The police have the situation so well in hand that before the would be rioters can get fairly started in their purpose they are scattered by the bluecoats in all directions.

PARTY LEADERS AT ESOPUS.

Mayor McClellan of New York Visits Judge Parker—Senator DuBois Discussed the Mormon Question.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ESOPUS, N. Y., July 29.—Mayor George B. McClellan, of New York, spent an hour with Judge Parker this afternoon. It was announced that the call was informal and that politics were discussed only in a general way. The Mayor was accompanied by Corporation Counsel John H. Delany, John Pierce and John B. McDonald, all of New York. The party made the trip from New York on the yacht Sapphire. When Mayor McClellan left here he promised Judge Parker he would return as soon as he could conveniently leave his municipal duties.

The Mormon question was taken up with Judge Parker to day by Senator Fred DuBois, of Idaho. Judge Parker was so much interested in the political conditions in Western States that he did not give Senator DuBois an opportunity to broach his mission until the arrival of Mayor McClellan and his party. After the party left Rosemount the Senator asked Judge Parker to take up the Mormon question as set forth in the Democratic platform, in his letter of acceptance of the Democratic nomination. Judge Parker exhibited great interest in the subject and promised to make it a study before closing his letter.

Conditions in several of the Western States, Senator DuBois said, give the Democrats a good chance of success. He mentioned particularly Idaho, Colorado, Montana and Nevada. In Washington it has been settled that former Senator George Turner will be nominated for the governorship. There is a local fight on in Washington over an effort to compel the railroads to pay "their just share of taxation," which Senator DuBois declares will weaken the Republican party and added to the personal popularity of Senator Turner, will enable the Democrats to carry the State.

Neither Judge Parker nor Mr. Taggart could be induced to say a word after their meeting as to the results of their conference. Judge Parker accompanied Mr. Taggart to the station, and was with him until his train came. Mr. Taggart is going to Indianapolis to attend the Indiana Democratic State convention on Wednesday. He will return to Rosemount the last of the week.

That Wm. F. Sheehan will be chairman of the executive committee of the national committee seems a fair conclusion from what little could be learned after the conference, although the decision is evidently not yet final. Mr. Taggart said that no selection had as yet been made of new quarters for the national committee. The matter is in the hands of Secretary Urri Woodson and National Committeeman Norman E. Mack. Mr. Taggart said he expected to appoint the executive and finance committees early in the coming week and that the appointment would probably be announced before his return East.

Chairman Thomas Taggart of the Democratic national committee, stopped at Esopus to-night on his way back to Indianapolis, and arrived at Rosemount about 9 o'clock. Judge Parker's coachman was at the station to meet him, news of his coming having been received by Judge Parker early in the evening. Chairman Taggart and the judge went into conference at once, as Mr. Taggart wished to catch the 10:30 train north to resume his journey.

A FAMILY MURDERED.

Man, His Wife and Three Children—Robbery Supposed to be the Motive.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

AUGUSTA, GA., July 29.—A special from Statesboro, Ga., says that Henry R. Hodges, his wife and three children were brutally murdered near there late last night. After the crime had been committed their home was set fire to and burned. Corpses found in the debris showed that the skulls of the grown people had been broken by blows from some blunt instrument. Robbery is supposed to have been the motive. No arrests have yet been made. There is the greatest excitement in Statesboro and vicinity.

HOMICIDE IN GEORGIA.

Chas. J. Tyler Shot and Killed at His Home by Dr. Thos. C. Burch.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

AUGUSTA, GA., July 30.—A special to the Chronicle from Washington, Wilkes county, Georgia, says that while Charles J. Tyler, a prominent young farmer of the northeastern section of the county, was at supper with his wife last night, Dr. Thos. C. Burch emptied two loads of buckshot from the window into the body of Tyler, killing him instantly. Dr. Burch has been taken into custody in the adjoining county and officials are now carrying him to Washington, the county seat of Wilkes county.

MORE VENEZUELA TROUBLE.

President Castro's Aggressive Policy Towards the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Co. Causes Excitement.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PORT OF SPAIN, TRINIDAD, July 29.—Ambrose Howard Carner, the former managing director of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company (who was recently appointed receiver of the company, as a result brought about by President Castro) accompanied by Attorney General Irabarren, arrived at Guanaco yesterday on the Venezuelan gunboat Bolivar and backed by Venezuelan soldiers took possession of the properties of the company, including the asphalt lake, against the energetic protests of Captain Cooley, the company's representative.

The steamer Viking, belonging to the company, escaped seizure and reached this port with the news of the government's drastic action.

Foreign companies residing in Venezuela are aroused at President's Castro's aggressive policy, which is directed also against British, French and German companies.
